

HONOURING MARITIME SERVICE AND LEGACY

Wednesday 30th April

Steve Wenban, a Master Mariner who has been at sea and in the Maritime industry since 1988 will bring to life the experiences of the crew who served on HMAS Perth during some of the most defining moments in maritime military history.

Rob Bentley, Ex-SAS soldier and experienced business and leadership coach with Acuity, will close the evening by drawing parallels between the lessons we can learn from service and the modern leadership and business challenges we face today.

Network and connect with fellow professionals in the industry (drinks and nibbles provided)
